Bloomingdale Park District & DuJardin Elementary – Looking Great at 50

The former Baptist church was sold to the Park District in 1965 for $1

In 1960, there were 1262 people living in Bloomingdale, four times more than in 1950. The huge population explosion was still about 15 years away, but still, this influx of residents and surge of development brought about some changes. The formation of a park district went to referendum and on May 2, 1964, a referendum was passed to establish a park district.

The following were elected as commissioners: Joe Slater, president; Jack Sheelor, vice president; Ron Richards; Don Rottenberk; and Margaret Johnson.

The first services offered residents were two baseball teams, two football teams, dance lessons and archery. In 1965 Circle Park began at 1.5 acres. In that same year the old Baptist Church at Bloomingdale Road and Franklin Street was sold to the park district for $1 and became the Park District office. Later, the one room building housed glass cases with period dresses, the old barber's chair from the shop that was on Lake Street, as well as part of the original post office boxes that used to grace Bender's Hardware when the post office was located in that building.

Over the years, the park district acquired park land in various areas of the Village, added acreage to some of the larger parks, developed playgrounds, made fields for the variety of sports played in the parks, improved its facilities and increased class offerings.

From the one and a half-acre Circle Park to 13 parks with a total of (continued on page 9)

The Tree City USA program is sponsored by the Arbor Day Foundation in partnership with the U.S. Forest Service and National Association of State Foresters. Erickson students, pictured with school staff, the Forestry crew and Trustee Judi Von Huben, display the flag for the accomplishment following the 2014 Arbor Day celebration.

Stay in Touch

Consider signing up for the Village's E-News, which would be delivered weekly to your email address.

This is a good way to keep up with timely information on news, services and events in and around town. And in the case of an unusual event, such as the snow, ice and frigid temperatures caused by our polar vortex experience in early January, the Village is able to get out critical information to all subscribers as it becomes available.

Go to www.villageofbloomington.org and sign up for the E-news on the homepage on the bottom half of the right hand side. It's easy and free!

A Message from Mayor Franco

As I write this in May, the temperatures are iffy, but Bloomingdale turned green in a matter of a week! So many things to look forward to as we are on the verge of summer – read about outdoor concerts, camps for the kids, summer reading programs and the ice cream social, golfing for a cause and much more in this issue. I also congratulate both Bloomingdale Park District and DuJardin Elementary School for marking 50 years of service to the community of Bloomingdale this spring. So much has changed here in the past 50 years.

There is one recent change in Bloomingdale that is causing concern within the community. I have received an increasing number of calls from residents regarding the escalation of noise due to the rerouting of commercial airplanes at O'Hare International Airport that now directs air traffic over the Village's airspace. This rerouting is the result of the O'Hare Modernization Plan, which has reconfigured the newest runways in an east-west direction. The direction of landings and takeoffs is based on the current wind patterns, and currently, O'Hare has directed more plane traffic over our Village due to the prevailing winds.

On behalf of the Village, I recently met with representatives from the Chicago Department of Aviation to discuss the Village's concerns regarding the noise levels. The increase in noise is due to the newest runway which became operational in the Fall of 2013. Additionally, I was advised that a third runway is scheduled to go online in approximately eighteen months. Unfortunately, the Village is not currently in O'Hare's Residential Sound Insulation Program coverage area, which is established by the federal government. However, the Department of Aviation has agreed to my request that the Village of Bloomingdale be added as a member of the O'Hare Noise Compatibility Commission (ONCC), which is a policy-making group that oversees noise management efforts around O'Hare International Airport.

The Chicago Department of Aviation (CDA) maintains a toll-free noise hotline, 1-800-435-9569, an Internet website, and an online service at www.flychicago.com for citizens to express their concern about particular aircraft events or aircraft noise levels in general. You can also access reports of noise complaints in the monthly Airport Noise Management System. Residents who have concerns regarding audible and/or visual impacts of this shift in air traffic are encouraged to report their complaints and feedback regarding this quality of life concern to the City of Chicago Department of Aviation, using the O'Hare Noise Complaint Form. Additionally, my thanks to Lynne Denmark, a member of the Mayor's Advisory Council, who first brought this issue to my attention earlier this year.

I have a personal favor to ask everyone as we FINALLY experience some nice weather and shift our focus and activities outdoors. The Village has been receiving a significant increase in complaints about speeding in our neighborhoods. I know that our lives are busy and hectic, but please be considerate and aware of the lower speed limits throughout our residential areas. Let's all keep our neighbors, friends and children safe!

My thanks to our Village Board and Staff for their hard work in implementing some of the new initiatives we have approved relative to Lake Street and Old Town. Enjoy the Summer and thank you for all of your support, comments and suggestions-keep them coming to franco@vil.bloomington.il.us.

Com Ed Working on System Improvements

Starting in late spring, ComEd, and its sub-contractor Intren (also known as Trench-it), will be replacing nearly four miles of underground electric cable throughout the Village. The work areas are on Meadowlark Road, Red Wing Court, Martin Lane and Martin Court, White Hall Terrace, Old Mill Lane, Butterfield Drive, Vinings Drive and Stratford Junior High.

This project is part of ComEd's annual system reliability improvements. The majority of the work will be completed by Intren, a sub-contractor to Com-Ed. To minimize disturbance and the scope of restorations, horizontal directional drilling, a steerable trenchless method of installing underground pipes, conduits and cables, will be used to replace the underground cable. Only occasional excavations will be required to complete the work. Minimal, if any, electrical service disruptions are expected in completing the work.

Both ComEd and Intren personnel will be working in rear yard and/or side yard easements to complete their various tasks. Intren will place a door hanger notifying affected property owners in the work area. Both Intren and ComEd workers will be wearing or carrying identification. Both ComEd and Intren vehicles should be also be clearly marked. No workers should ask you for access to the interior of your residence to complete the work, as it is not necessary.

Areas disturbed by the work will be restored with top soil and seed blanket as weather permits in the early summer. Please direct any questions or concerns to Jason Schmitt, Project Manager for Intren at (815) 923-2300 extension 306. Or contact the Village of Bloomingdale, Engineering Division at (630) 671-5676.

VFW member Jerry Bertrand has collected and burned well over 12,000 flags in the last eight years the flag drop box has been there.

Be a Friend of Septemberfest/ Joe Draghi Scholarship

Scholarships have been awarded to Bloomingdale students between the age of 16 and 20 as part of Septemberfest since 1987. It's been 20 years since the scholarship was officially named the Septemberfest/Joe Draghi Scholarship. Draghi was a longtime resident who was always willing to help with a cause, serving on many committees (including Septemberfest) and often volunteering for the most thankless jobs. Because of his commitment to the community, volunteer service is a big component of earning the scholarship.

If you have enjoyed Septemberfest, have been a recipient of the scholarship or are the parent of a former recipient, won't you please consider making a donation to help the Septemberfest/Joe Draghi Scholarship going? It is supported entirely by donations. The Septemberfest Commission and future scholarship winners thank you.

Did you know? Motorized Scooters Are Not Allowed on Public Property

Who's Knocking at My Door?

The Village of Bloomingdale requires that all solicitors register with the Bloomingdale Police Department. If a solicitor comes to your door, be sure to check that they have a clearly visible solicitor's badge issued by the Village before you answer the door. The badge displays the solicitor's photograph, the name of the organization, and an expiration date. Charitable solicitors, in lieu of a name tag or badge, may choose to wear their appropriate uniform.

The hours for soliciting in Bloomingdale are 10:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. In addition, solicitors are not allowed to disregard the "No Solicitors Invited" signs posted prominently at your front door. If a solicitor violates any of these rules, or if they seem to be over aggressive in trying to sell you something, please call 9-1-1 to inform police of the violation. If possible, provide 9-1-1 with the clothing description of the solicitor and their direction of travel.

Please report any and all suspicious activity to the Bloomingdale Police Department.

Now that the summer's warm weather is approaching, the Bloomingdale Police Department offers the following reminder. There has been an ordinance in Bloomingdale since June 2002, that prohibits the usage of motorized skateboard, a snow vehicle, motorized scooters, motorized go-peds, go-cart, mini-bike or any similar engine powered (gas or electric powered) vehicle or device upon any public or private street, highway, parking lot, sidewalk, school ground, or bike path or any other public property within the Village of Bloomingdale. The exception is for those individuals who are authorized to use motorized wheelchairs. A violation of this Ordinance may be given a fine in an amount not to exceed $1,000.00. The parent or legal guardian of any person under the age of sixteen (16) years who violates the Ordinance shall be liable for any and all damages resulting from the operation of the vehicle and for any fine assessed.

Looking Great at 50

159.75 acres, the park district has truly expanded. The Village offers its sincere congratulations to the Bloomingdale Park District for its continual growth in excellence and service to the community. Here's to another fifty!

The Park District is offering multiple special programs, classes and events associated with the anniversary. Look for a 50th Anniversary icon in the Park District's summer brochure (available now!) and the upcoming fall brochure (delivered to residents the first week of August). Fiftieth Anniversary-associated events/programs can be seen in the brochure. Or check the website: www.bloomingtondaleparks.org

At the same time that the park district was organizing, School District 13 was looking to expand. Central School, built in 1937, was overflowing to the point that youngsters were on a split schedule. The entire school population could not fit into the school all at once, despite the addition of four new classrooms, a gym and office in 1959. After passing a referendum, plans moved forward on a new school.

The land for the school, a substantial lot of nearly 40,000 square feet, was donated to the school by the DuJardin Family. Rosamond DuJardin, for whom the school was ultimately named, became a writer after she became a mother. She started out in the 1930s writing short stories for Redbook, Good Housekeeping, Cosmopolitan and other magazines, then went on to author books and radio plays. She was most well-known for her young adult novels, publishing 17 of these popular books. Her last novel was written in 1963, the year she passed away.

Rosamond DuJardin

Sadly, she did not get to see the school built, nor learn it was named after her. The $310,000 DuJardin School, which opened in November 1964, solved many problems for the district. It not only provided easier access for youngsters living on the east side of Bloomingdale, it also allowed the district to finally have kindergarten classes. Between the two schools, a total of 69 kindergarteners enrolled in school in the 1964 school year.

DuJardin underwent additions and remodeling over the years, including the addition of a connecting school district office. Now nestled in the middle of a residential area that grew up around it, DuJardin currently serves 379 students. And after all this time, it feels as young as ever. Congratulations, and thank you DuJardin, for 50 years of creating memories for countless families whose youngsters came through your doors.

Nestled in the middle of a residential area, DuJardin currently serves 379 students

ComEd Smart Meters

A smart meter is a digital electric meter that collects energy use information and sends it securely to ComEd. ComEd plans to provide all customers with smart meters by 2021.

Because smart meters automatically send meter readings to ComEd, they help eliminate estimated bills and the need for meter readers to visit your home. When the modernized electric grid is complete, smart meters will provide customers with faster restoration times by notifying ComEd when an outage occurs and when power is restored.

Johnny G's Quality Meats and Deli, Inc. Celebrates 30 Years

John Giannelli, the proprietor of Johnny G's, has been a butcher all of his life, having learned the trade in Italy. In 1984, he opened Johnny G's Quality Meats and Deli in the Old Town Square Shopping Center.

Mike, Johnny, Mike and Jim

Johnny will hand-cut your steak, roast, chicken or any other fresh meat right in front of you. His Italian and other sausages are handmade in the shop. He makes several varieties, such as tomato and basil, piz-zaiola, barese (Mayor Franco's favorite), and Hawaiian brats, to name a few. You can pick your favorite right from the showcase.

Johnny also features a deli section where he will slice meats and cheese to your desired thickness. You can find fresh salads there too. Johnny also features his own private label pasta sauces in a variety of flavors, as well as a wide assortment of homemade pasta, also under his label. And if you are pressed for time for dinner, Johnny has entrees, such as ready to bake lasagna and eggplant parmigiana, as well as pre-cooked meatballs.

If you like a fresh turkey for Thanksgiving or other holidays, order it from Johnny G's. Always fresh, never frozen. He also does custom catering for any occasion.

If you remember the days when people bought their fresh meat at the corner meat market, or if you have never tasted meat fresh from the butcher shop, you need to visit Johnny G's. You will not be disappointed!

St. Paul Church Members Honored for 45 Years of Ministry and Service

St. Paul Church dedicated a six foot tall oil on canvas painting by member Georgette West. The painting, Through the Temple Window, was commissioned by the Sunday School of St. Paul Church in 2004, and has hung in a classroom for the last ten years. Recently, the members of congregation joined resources to have the extraordinarily large painting professionally framed, mounted and hung by resident Matt Puchalski of Masterpiece Framing.

Joining in the celebration was the Garden Club of Bloomingtondale, to which Bert and Georgette West have long belonged. The painting now hangs in the West entryway of the church, adorned with a plaque reading, "Presented on this 4th day of May, 2014 in honor of over 45 years of dedicated service to St. Paul Evangelical Church." The community is invited to visit St. Paul Church weekdays between 9:00 a.m. and Noon, or Sundays at 10:00 a.m. to see the beautiful painting.

The majority of the construction is projected to be completed in time for the new school year in the fall. Part of the initial construction will include the renovation of the interior of the chapel building, which was the original church, built in 1920. St Isidore Students Fill 420 Grocery Carts for Dupage Food Pantries

Students representing St. Isidore Religious Education and School, along with the Religious Education Director Vera Zielinski and Principal Cyndi Collins, present a check for $2,150 to Neighborhood Food Pantries' Resurrection Site Coordinator Kathy McKinley and other site coordinators and board members.

St. Isidore School students, along with the parish's Religious Education classes, participated in a Lenten Service Project to raise money for the Neighborhood Food Pantries of DuPage County. The goal was to collect enough cash donations to fill 150 grocery carts; the students actually collected enough between Ash Wednesday and Holy Week to fill 420 grocery carts!

In order to maximize monies collected, the St Isidore students worked through the Northern Illinois Food Bank where every $5 donation they made was enough to purchase a full cart of groceries. There are six local Food Pantry sites in DuPage County, which last year served more than 3,270 families with three to seven days' worth of food each visit.

Thanks Everyone!

The Bloomingdale Postal Carriers thank residents for their generosity on May 10th food drive. All donations were given to the Bloomingdale Township Pantry.

"It sounded like a freight train," is often the description used by people who have experienced the terror of a tornado. Spring and summer thunderstorms usually are the catalyst from which tornadoes spring. Because of the frequency of warm weather thunderstorms, it is wise to be prepared to seek shelter anytime a severe thunderstorm arises. Severe thunderstorms are usually accompanied by heavy rain, high winds and hail. Depending on the severity of a thunderstorm, the National Weather Service may issue either a tornado watch or a tornado warning.

A tornado watch means that tornadoes may occur in or near the area. You should listen to the local radio and TV for information and instructions. If you have a line of site to the southwest, be alert for funnel-shaped clouds. If you should spot one, seek shelter immediately and contact 9-1-1.

A tornado warning means a tornado has been spotted or indicated by weather radar. Take shelter immediately, turn on a battery-operated radio and wait for the "all clear" announcement. Should a tornado warning be issued for the immediate Bloomingtondale/Roselle area, the Village's emergency sirens will be sounded. When you hear the siren, do not waste time getting to your shelter.

REMEMBER:

If you are at your home, go to the lowest level of your home. If you do not have a basement or crawl space, go to an interior closet or hallway. If possible, get under a sturdy table and protect your head.

If at a school, nursing home or like structure, go to pre-designated shelter areas, usually on the lowest floor.

If you are in a car, get out and take shelter in a nearby building, if possible. If there are no structures nearby, try to find a drainage ditch or other low-lying area. Never try to outrun a tornado.

When tornadoes threaten, immediate action can save your life. Stay away from windows, doors and outside walls in your home. Cover your head; any debris may become flying missiles.

Bloomingtondale Fire Protection District #1

Lightning Can be Deadly

As we enter summer and severe weather becomes a problem, the Bloomingtondale Fire Protection District and the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) would like to inform all of our residents about the dangers of lightning. You can download our free safety tip sheet at www.nfpa.org

Fires started by lightning peak in the summer months and in the late afternoon and early evening.

Lightning Facts & figures

- During 2004-2008, U.S. fire departments responded to an estimated annual average of 24,600 fires started by lightning. These fires caused annual averages of 12 civilian deaths, 47 civilian injuries, and $407 million in direct property damage.
- More than half of fires caused by lightning occur outdoors. Deaths and injuries from lightning fires is small, but the dollar loss is more than $400 million per year.
- In 2004-2008, only 18% of reported lightning fires occurred in homes, but these accounted for 88% of the civilian deaths, 77% of the associated injuries and 70% of the property damage.

LIGHTNING SAFETY TIPS

Summer is the peak time of the year for lightning strikes and lightning fires. However, lightning does occur year round. It's important to be prepared for this dangerous weather phenomenon.

Outdoor safety

- If you can hear thunder, you are within striking distance of lightning. Look for shelter inside a home, large building, or a hard-topped vehicle right away. Do not go under tall trees for shelter. There is no place outside that is safe during a thunderstorm. Wait at least 30 minutes after the last thunder before leaving your shelter.
- Stay away from windows and doors.
- If you are in or on open water, go to land and seek shelter immediately.
- If you feel your hair stand on end, that means lightning is about to strike, squat low to the ground on the balls of your feet. Place your hands over your ears and your head between your knees. Make yourself the smallest target possible and minimize your contact with the ground. Do not lie flat on the ground. This is a last resort when a building or hard-topped vehicle is not available.
- If a person is struck by lightning, call 9-1-1 and get medical care immediately. Lightning strike victims carry no electrical charge; attend to them immediately. Check their breathing, heartbeat, and pulse. CPR may be needed.

Indoor safety

- Unplug appliances and other electrical items, like computers, and turn off air conditioners. Stay off corded phones, computers, and other electronic equipment that put you in direct contact with electricity or plumbing. Avoid washing your hands, bathing, doing laundry, or washing dishes.

Looking for Something Different For Father's Day?

Tell the world Dad is your personal hero by placing a brick with your sentiments at the "Everyday Heroes" statue in Old Town Park. The 4x8 bricks are $100 each and hold three lines of copy at 13 spaces each. Bricks are also still available at the golf course and the library statue sites for $75 each. All orders placed by June 23, 2014 will be installed late summer. A card announcing your gift to Dad is available at no charge. Call Mary Ellen at the Village Hall at 671-5600 for more information or to place an order.

Another "novel" gift idea is a copy of the Images of America - Bloomingdale book published by the Bloomingdale Historical Society through Arcadia. The story of Bloomingdale from 1833 through 1983, the town's 150th birthday, is told through photographs and captions. Historic views of current areas and structures are featured, including historic photographs of the renovated old school at Lake and Third Street.

The book is available for $19.99 from the Bloomingdale Public Library or the Village Hall. This photographic journal also makes a great birthday or anniversary gift for anyone who lives in town.
