Old Town Bloomingdale Farmers' Market

We've got some exciting news regarding a long awaited attraction appearing in Old Town this summer. The Village of Bloomingdale will be hosting a farmers market to be held 3:00 to 7:00 p.m. on Thursdays, June 16 – October (rain or shine), in the Tiffany Point Parking lot on the NW corner of Schick Rd. and Third St. The Farmers' Market is a part of the revitalization of Old Town and a step designed to help create a community gathering spot over the summer months.

We have five (5) vendor stalls (and counting) of locally grown fruits & vegetables, plus eggs, honey and honey products, plants, flowers, delicious specialty baked goods and prepared foods, knife sharpening, including garden tools, chemical free toiletries and cleaners, specialty treats for the pooch and more. Plans are in the works for cheese, meat and poultry vendors.

Various events and entertainment are also being developed for each market, including paper shredding and recycling collection, gardening, cooking and art demonstrations, entertainment for the kids and for the kids at heart. The Park District will also provide weekly activities and entertainment. A community table will also be hosted by various local organizations throughout the market season.

A Message from Mayor Franco

Spring is finally here! We look forward to the warmth of sunshine, blossoming flowers and more opportunities to get outside and play! I'll tell you what else we can look forward to, although we are going to have to wait until this summer.

If you saw the front page of this Almanac, you know that we are finally going to have a weekly Farmers' Market beginning mid-June through October in the Old Town area! There will also be weekly events and entertainment to coincide with the market. We have been talking about transforming Old Town into a center of activity for our community and this is a great step toward making that a reality.

Work has already begun on Third Street in Old Town to improve the infrastructure, and replace sidewalks, street lights, etc. plus add planting beds with seating walls to provide a fresh feel to Old Town, while maintaining the character of the area. The project is slated to be complete at the end of July.

Another long-awaited summertime favorite returns to Bloomingdale when fireworks will fill the Bloomingdale sky on July 2nd. At this time, the Village, Stratford Square Mall and Hilton Indian Lakes are partnering to have the pyrotechnics originate from the grounds of the resort. More details on this will appear in the June issue of the Almanac, as well as in upcoming E-news. Here's a hint, I love fireworks just about as much as I love Christmas lights!

In other areas of town, the DuPage Medical Group will be breaking ground soon for a 55,000 square-foot medical center just to the south of their existing medical building on Springfield Drive and the Stratford ring road. Additionally, the landscape architectural design plans are nearly finished for the 35-acre Indian Lakes open space project. We are continuing our efforts to transform this property into a passive park for use by our residents, as well as providing stormwater relief for the adjacent property owners.

Great things are continuing to happen in Bloomingdale. As an exciting reaffirmation that the Village Board's vision and planning has made a real difference, Moody's Investor Service recently notified the Village that we have maintained our credit rating of "Aa2," which reflects a very high quality credit position. The Aa2 rating slightly exceeds the median rating of Aa3 for US cities. This follows an upgrade by Standard & Poor's of the Village's bond rating in 2015.

In closing, I'd like to recognize Jane Hove, who has been the Chamber of Commerce president and CEO for the last nine years. She resigned in March to pursue new challenges and projects. Jane has been a dynamic force for the organization and has successfully connected the chamber with the community in so many ways. Read about Jane being named the 2016 Georgene Geils Business Woman of the Year on p. 14. We wish her well and know she will be successful in whatever path she chooses.

Water System Protection

Community public water supplies are required by State regulations to maintain active cross-connection control programs to protect the safety of water consumers. Increased health and safety protection for water consumers necessitated by recent backflow incidents across the country and within Illinois have increased enforcement of cross-connection regulations.

CROSS-CONNECTION CONTROL DEVICE

- Compliance is required for commercial and residential connections - Don't forget your annual inspection for your cross-connection control device for your irrigation system will be due in the month of May.

Reminder letters will be distributed the 1st week of May. Failure to have the device tested and certified will result in the disconnection of water service and will not be restored until compliance with IEPA requirements and the Village Code is verified and a $250 reconnection fee is paid. The inspection and certification must be performed by a licensed plumber; for further protection consider hiring a plumber trained in cross-connection control to check your home.

- Compliance is suggested - residents are also encouraged to install a hose bib (sill cock) vacuum breaker on every single hose bib (sill cock) to isolate garden hose applications thus protecting the potable water supply, which is the most common offender of contamination. The device can be purchased at any local hardware store for less than $7.00.

For more information, please contact the Village of Bloomington Water Production Division at 630-671-5830 or email vegae@vil.bloomington.il.us

Branch Pickup Begins April 18

Kramer Tree Specialists, Inc. will once again perform branch collection under the direction of the Village Forestry Division. Branch collection will begin on Monday, April 18. The program is only available to single family detached residences. Townhome residents should contact their association regarding branch collection.

Branch Collection Guidelines:

- Branches must be out by 7:00 a.m. on Monday, April 18.

- Long lengths are favored provided branches do not block sidewalks and pedestrian access.
- All branches should be placed at the curb or pavement edge and stacked in an orderly fashion with the cut or larger end towards the pavement.

*Large stumps, roots and root balls are considered trash and do not require a yard waste tag, provided each item is of manageable size and under 50 pounds. Wooden fencing and construction lumber are also considered trash, but require a special pick-up. Contact Republic Services for more information.

In the event of severe storms, the Village will provide storm damage collection of woody branches ½ inch to 6 inches in diameter. Please contact the Forestry Division at 630-671-5800 within 72 hours of storm for branch collection.

Door to Door Solicitation

The Village of Bloomington requires that all solicitors register with the Bloomington Police Department. If a solicitor comes to your door, be sure to check that they have a clearly visible solicitor’s badge issued by the Village before you answer the door. The badge displays the solicitor’s photograph, the name of the organization, and an expiration date. Charitable solicitors, in lieu of a name tag or badge, may choose to wear their appropriate uniform.

Hours for soliciting in Bloomington are 10:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. In addition, solicitors are not allowed to disregard the “No Solicitors Invited” signs posted prominently at your front door. If a solicitor violates any of these rules, or if they seem to be over aggressive in trying to sell you something, please call 9-1-1 to inform police of the violation. If possible, provide 9-1-1 with the clothing description of the solicitor and their direction of travel.

Please report any and all suspicious activity to the Bloomington Police Department.

Help Prevent Polluted Runoff Water

Polluted runoff water, occurs when rain and melting snow carry pollutants from streets, parking lots, yards and construction sites, and wash them into our storm drains. Some of these pollutants are motor oil, anti-freeze, commercial fertilizers, and pesticides.

Bloomingtondale residents, you can help!

Your everyday activities can have a large impact on the water quality in and around the Village of Bloomingtondale. By taking simple steps around your home or business, you can help to reduce the amount of polluted water, which enters our storm drains and makes its way untreated, to our local waterways.

Storm Drains

Help keep storm drains clean. Only rain and snow melt water should ever go down a storm drain. Keep debris from homes, lawns, pets, and vehicles out of all storm drains. Remember, anything that enters a storm drain is untreated when it eventually finds its way into a lake, river, or stream.

Pets

When walking your pet remember to Scoop the Poop and dispose of it properly. Bag it and place it in the garbage, or flush it. Leaving pet waste on the ground increases public health risks by allowing harmful bacteria and nutrients to wash into the storm drain and eventually into a waterway.

Yard & Garden

- Pesticides and Fertilizers: Use fertilizers and chemicals sparingly. When their use is necessary, follow the directions set forth on the label. Do not apply if rain is forecast to prevent the chemical from being washed into the storm drain.
- Lawn Care: Don't over water your lawn and allow runoff water to flow down the street into the storm drain. It can carry fertilizer and lawn clippings with it.

Vehicles

- Car Washing: Use a commercial car wash or wash your car on a lawn or other unpaved surface to allow the water to be filtered and to minimize the amount of dirty soapy water that flows through the storm drain system and enters a waterway, untreated.
- Motor Oil and Other Automotive Fluids: Check your car, truck, boat, and other machinery for leaks and spills. Make any needed repairs as soon as possible. Use an absorbent material to dry up leaks and spills. Do not let the spilled fluid enter a nearby storm drain! Dispose of any used absorbent in the proper manner. Recycle all automotive fluids at participating recycle centers. Do not pour them down the storm drain or place them in the garbage!

Household Hazardous Waste

Never dump any kind of household hazardous waste into a storm drain! These are items such as paint, varnish, cleaners, acids, etc. These items need to be taken to an approved hazardous waste recycling center.

Report Spills & Other Water Pollution

- Report all spills that are potentially life threatening or hazardous in nature by calling 911.
- Report any non-hazardous spills or illegal dumping to the Village of Bloomingtondale Utilities Division at 630-671-5830.

Bloomingtondale Water is Safe to Drink

After reading and listening to news reports about the water contamination problems in Flint, Michigan, some have questioned whether they should be concerned with the quality of Bloomingtondale's drinking water.

In short, the answer is: No. Flint Michigan's drinking water source was changed in 2014 from treated Lake Huron water purchased from the City of Detroit, to water drawn from the Flint River, treated by the City of Flint. It appears that Flint River water has been determined to contain certain high levels of unsafe contaminants, and containing high amounts of iron which contributes to corrosion of older plumbing systems containing lead.

Bloomingtondale's drinking water source is Lake Michigan, a recognized reliable source of safe drinking water. Since 1992, the Village has purchased its drinking water from the DuPage Water Commission (DWC), which in turn is supplied to the DWC pursuant to contract with the City of Chicago. Annually, USEPA / IEPA require the City, the DWC and the Village to publish a Consumer Confidence Drinking Water Quality Report which provides important information about your drinking water and the efforts made by all to provide safe drinking water.

Internship Offers Great Business Experience

Tornado Season is Here

In the Spring, April showers can turn into heavy rains and tornados are a common occurrence in Illinois. Pre-planning is a critical activity to protect you and your family in the event of a tornado watch or warning. The following measures will help to sufficiently prepare for the tornado season.

Keep abreast of weather forecasts via TV or a battery operated NOAA weather radio. Because tornados often accompany thunderstorms, pay close attention to changing weather conditions when there is a severe thunderstorm watch or warning.

Know the difference between a tornado watch (favorable conditions) vs. a tornado warning (a funnel cloud has been spotted within a 5 mile radius of the Village limits.

Know the observable conditions of likely tornado activity such as dark greenish sky, dark low-lying/rotating clouds, large hail and the sound of a large roar similar to a freight train.

Know the sound and meaning of a tornado siren activation, which is a steady wail lasting 3 -5 minutes in duration sounded for those located outdoors to seek immediate shelter in a building or structure.

Resident Sammy Pellegrino was selected for a highly competitive College Works Painting internship. The program puts students at the helm of a small business for a single summer. The 2013 Lake Park graduate is a junior business student at DePaul University in Chicago. This spring, he'll be backing up those classroom lessons with some real world experience, thanks to a highly selective internship with College Works Painters.

For Sammy, who is interested in a career in marketing or management, the internship is an opportunity to branch out and pick up new skills.

The young man was hired this year to manage a team of young painters, marketers and other employees operating in Bloomingdale. The company provides its college interns with painting supplies, a budget and extensive mentoring, then steps back as the student takes charge of building revenue, controlling costs and maintaining all other aspects of a small exterior painting business.

Although the painting season doesn't start until June, Sammy already has his hands full scouting out potential clients, hiring his team and setting business initiatives in motion. His main goal is to help the people of Bloomingdale by offering his services, but also getting to know everyone in the town he calls home.

"I think the most valuable thing I'm hoping to get from this program is learning all the ins and outs of running a business. The experience that I will gain and the people I will meet is something that keeps me determined to work hard and succeed at everything I do," Sammy said.

A proud Bloomingdale resident, Sammy is the Head Coach of the 11U Bloomingdale Bulldogs and Assistant Coach on the 14U Bloomingdale Bulldogs, the local travel baseball organization. Giving back to the community is why Sammy volunteers to coach boys travel baseball, as well as to mentor kids as they grow into young adults.

For questions about the internship, inquiries about the services, or just to get to know Sammy, reach him at (630) 854 9543 or email him at sammypellegrino@comcast.net.

Hoarding Can Cause Special Risks to Homeowners And Firefighters

The Bloomingtondale Fire Protection District and the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) would like you to know that many fire departments are experiencing serious fires, injuries, and deaths as the result of compulsive hoarding behavior. The excessive accumulation of materials in homes poses a significant threat to firefighters fighting fires and responding to other emergencies in these homes and to residents and neighbors. Often, the local fire department will be contacted to help deal with this serious issue. Since studies suggest that between three and five percent of the population are compulsive hoarders, it is important to become familiar with this issue and how to effectively handle it.

What is hoarding?

Hoarding is defined as collecting or keeping large amounts of various items in the home due to strong urges to save them or distress experienced when discarding them. Many rooms in the home are so filled with possessions that residents can no longer use the rooms as designed. The home is so overloaded with things that everyday living is compromised.

Why do people become hoarders?

Hoarding is a mental disorder that can be genetic in nature, triggered by traumatic events, or a symptom of another disorder, such as depression, obsessive compulsive disorder, or dementia. Studies have found that hoarding usually begins in early adolescence and gets worse as a person ages. It is more common among older adults.

Why is hoarding an issue for the fire service?

- Hoarding can be a fire hazard. Many occupants die in fires in these homes. Often, blocked exits prevent escape from the home. In addition, many people who are hoarding are injured when they trip over things or when materials fall on them.
- Responding firefighters can be put at risk due to obstructed exits, falling objects, and excessive fire loading that can lead to collapse. Hoarding makes fighting fires and searching for occupants far more difficult.
- Those living adjacent to an occupied structure can be quickly affected when a fire occurs, due to excessive smoke and fire conditions.

For more information about fire safety issues, contact Battalion Chief Richard Kurka at the Bloomingtondale Fire Protection District 630-894-9080.

BFPD Awarded Top 2% PPC Rating

The Bloomingtondale Fire Protection District #1 is comprised of over 50 dedicated professionals committed to service, safety, and teamwork. In 2015, the Bloomingtondale Fire Protection District responded to 4,250 emergency calls, averaging 11.6 calls per day.

Recently, the Bloomingtondale Fire Protection District (BFPD) was awarded a Public Protection Class (PPC) score of "2." This places Bloomingtondale in the top two percent of all fire departments in the U.S. for its ability to respond to emergencies. This Classification is based on emergency communications, fire department operational considerations, and water supply. It also includes a community risk reduction section which recognizes community efforts to reduce losses through fire prevention, public fire safety education, and fire investigation.

An added benefit of this award is that many insurance companies use this information to help determine their customer's property insurance premiums.
