

Nondiscrimination Notice

Discrimination is Against the Law

The Village of Bloomingdale complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. The Village of Bloomingdale does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. The Village of Bloomingdale:

- Provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:
 - Qualified sign language interpreters;
 - Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats);
- Provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:
 - Qualified interpreters;
 - Information written in other languages.

If you need these services, contact Barb Weber, Assistant Village Administrator.

If you believe that the Village of Bloomingdale has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with Barb Weber, Assistant Village Administrator, 201 S. Bloomingdale Road, Bloomingdale, IL 60108, phone: 1-630-671-5613, email: weberb@vil.bloomingdale.il.us. You can file a grievance in person or by mail, or email. If you need help filing a grievance, Barb Weber, Assistant Village Administrator, is available to help you.
